

Cpl. Errol Randle is a 23 year veteran of the Charleston Police Department. His past duty assignments include patrol officer, Street Crimes Unit detective, and FBI gang task force officer. Currently, Cpl. Randle is the police department's Strategic Planning Officer in which he is tasked with developing and implementing 21st Century community policing strategies to better police/community relations.

Cpl. Randle is the co-developer of the Project West Invest initiative which promotes safety by having police officers living within neighborhoods of challenge and becoming the catalyst for neighborhood revitalization and home ownership. Cpl. Randle proudly resides on the West Side of Charleston and in his free time mentors children and is a 2nd chance advocate for inmates re-entering back into society.