

Claudia Y.W. Herrold is the Senior Vice President, Communications and Public Policy, at Philanthropy Ohio. She is responsible for overseeing all print and electronic communications, research efforts, marketing and media relations. Ms. Herrold additionally directs the public policy work at the state and federal levels, monitoring and reporting on issues pertinent to the philanthropic sector. As a registered lobbyist for the organization, she builds and maintains relationships with key elected officials and their staff and advocates on behalf of Philanthropy Ohio and its members.

Ms. Herrold has been employed by Philanthropy Ohio since 1998, when she started as the director of private foundation services and external relations. Prior to joining the organization, Ms. Herrold worked as a free lance writer of textbooks and as a communications director in a county human services planning organization. She earned her bachelor's degree from the George Washington University with a major in political science and minor in journalism and her master's degree from the University of Michigan in political science.