

Rebecca R. McPhail joined the WVMA as its president in 2013. McPhail previously served at the President of state economic development organization Vision Shared. Prior to her work at Vision Shared, McPhail was Assistant Vice President of Development at Marshall University. Before returning to West Virginia in 2003, she served as Grant Development and Research Manager and Interim Director of Development for the YMCA of Greater Cleveland in Cleveland, Ohio.

McPhail is a graduate of the West Virginia Institute of Technology with a B.A. in History and Government. She is a member of the WV Department of Environmental Protection Advisory Council, the WV Early Childhood Development Council, serves as Chair of the Charleston March for Babies through the March of Dimes, and attends St. Mark's United Methodist Church. She is a graduate of Leadership West Virginia and was named a 2017 Young Gun by The West Virginia Executive magazine.

McPhail resides in Charleston, WV with her husband David Yaussy, and two sons, Garrett and Owen